Mr. Dick Bland, Sales Manager for Lawson Ford, Inc., presents Best in Show award to Dawn Holliday for her Westhighland White Terrier "Zippy". "Zippy" took top honors in the 1973 4-H Dog Show for which Lawson Ford provided trophies and ribbons.

Jr. Woman's Club Visits Boys Home

I to r Pam Moore winner in Obedience with "Tina" (Bassett); Carol McFaden winner in Working Dogs with "Cheyenne" (Collie); Susan Parris winner in Sporting Dogs with English Setter "Max"; Mr. Dick Bland, Sales Manager, Lawson Ford, Inc.; Dawn Holliday, winner in Terriers and Best in Show with Westhighland White Terrier "Zippy"; Sharon Roach winner in Toy Dogs with Pekingese "Princess Suey Chang"; Sherri Harris, winner in Costume Class with "Rusty" (Dachshund); missing from the picture include other winners: Debbie Baldwin, Duane Gilliam, Glenn Gilliam, and Jayne Doss.

On Sunday, June 3rd, members of the Appomattox Junior Woman's Club who sponsor a boy at Patrick Henry Boy's Plantation, their husbands and guests had a most enjoyable and rewarding day with the boy of their choice from Patrick Henry Boy's Plantation.

The members were met on arrival and taken to the dining room where a party was given for boys having birthdays in March, April, May or June.

Each of the ten boys, sponsored by a Junior Woman's Club member, was excused from their duties for the day, and after bowling and many pizzas an exhausted group arrived home.

Taking part in the activities of the day were, shown above from left to right, front row: Bobby King, Joe Hagg and Bobby Sutton all from the Boy's Home; second row, from the left: Vickie Canada, Steve Efrid, from the Boy's Home; Anne Robinson and Darrell Sutton, also from the Boy's Home. On the third row, left to right, are Nancy Elder, John Call, Roger Morgan, and Gary Rugen, three boys from the home; Ann Kerr, Sandra Martin, Iris and Wayne Mann; and on the back row, left to right, are Addison Elder, Mark Arthur, from the home; Earl Martin, Bobby Miller, from the home; and Johnny Canada.

Patrick Henry Boy's Plantation is a District Project for the Junior Women but the Appomattox Junior Woman's Club is the only club in the district to sponsor individual boys and show a personal interest in them.

4-H Dog Show, Success

The 1973 Dog Show, held Friday night at the ACHS Football Field attracted 20 dogs and over 50 entries. Nearly 125 spectators watched the event. Sponsored by Lawson Ford, Inc., the 4-H Dog Show was the 3rd annual event of its kind.

Ring Stewards included Paula Franklin and Ricky Wingfield.

Appreciation is due Coach Jerry Robinson and Mr. John McLean at ACHS for assisting with arrangements for using the field.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL AT NEW HOPE

Ready? Here comes the last write-up concerning the New Hope Vacation Bible School, with registration on June 9, at 10:00 a.m. and regular school days, 9:00 -12:00, from June 11 - 15. This time I promised you a word about the children, ages 9 - 11.

This group will be using the book, "Followers of Jesus," under the watchful eyes of Faye Tucker, Bessie O'Brien, Mildren Alvis, Emma Lemon and Margaret O'Brien with helpers Donna Mitchell, Page Garrett, and Mike Quinn.

During the week, the students will concentrate on the works of the Twelve Disciples. Various projects will point up the extent of these works. For instance, the students will explore God's Word through the Young Actors Guild which means that they may have monologues by various missionaries (disciples), explaining the type of work that's done; the Newspaper Publishers will prepare news items about what the Disciples are doing and have done; the Construction Crew will present Bible scenes by building cities (with the use of boxes); the Glass Makers will paint scenes like those found on stained glass windows, and when they allow the light to pass thru the paper, they will explain what the scene is. Doesn't that sound helpful and interesting?

There will be a period of recreation and music, after which the students will study Word through the Young Actors Guild which means that they may have monologues by various missionaries (disciples), explaining the type of work that's done; the Newspaper Publishers will prepare news items about what the Disciples are doing and have done; the Construction Crew will present Bible scenes by building cities (with the use of boxes); the Glass Makers will paint scenes like those found on stained glass windows, and when they allow the light to pass thru the paper, they will explain what the scene is. Doesn't that sound helpful and interesting?

There will be a period of recreation and music, after which the students will study "Followers of Jesus Today". Again each teacher will have a project to emphasize the preaching, the teaching, and the healing done by present day missionaries. In other words, the children will study mission work supported by the Cooperative Program and The Foreign and Home Mission Boards.

If we can stretch our time enough, we will have some work in the pupil's workbooks and maybe some games.

A Bible School would not be complete without music and refreshments. Under the capable direction of Ruth Holliday, all of the children become real song birds. We invite you to hear the three-year-olds, as well as the older children sing. Moreover, we invite you to partake of refreshments served by Mrs. Irvin Moses, Mrs. Mary Garrett, and Mrs. Tressie Ferguson. You will receive something cold, along with a lot of love and thoughtfulness.

The Youth of New Hope will receive special treatment from Bolly Carter, Pat Torrence, Connie Gobble, and Mr. Holliday during the week of June 18-22. Don't forget to listen for all announcements.

See you at Bible School for sure!
